COMMON CORE STANDARDS: CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.1.5, CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.3.1, CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.5.6

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Students will understand the following:

- Apply multimedia art skills to a round canvas

ACTIVITY:

Instructional Sequence:

(Step by step instructions, should another instructor pick up and teach the lesson successfully)

Demonstrate the process to students before letting them work on their own:

First period:

1. Take a bowl or a cup and fill it up with water. Each bowl will act as a different station, so give a different color to each student and ask them to walk around and share colors when dyeing.
2. Make a vinegar and water mixture and add the tablet (not necessary for pink, usually)
3. Pass out 1 egg to each student
4. Create designs on the egg using various materials
  - a. White crayon, tape, rubber bands, and labeling dots can be put on the eggs, dyed, and removed to create patterns
  - b. Tin foil wrapped around the egg before dyeing it can create a rough texture
5. Dip the egg in the dye
6. For the second egg, put paint brushes in the bowls and ask students to paint the eggs by hand.
7. They can choose what technique to use for the third egg

Second period:

1. Before the lesson, ask a few students who don't want to participate in the hunt to help hide the dyed eggs around the playground and any other appropriate area.
2. Hide one plastic egg filled with tickets or another prize
3. Send students out to hunt eggs
4. Keep a tally of the eggs and call students in about 15 minutes before the end of the hunt and figure out how many are left. Send students back out if there are eggs remaining.
